NARRATIVE: 12-19-2018 11:30 am
I was asked by Lt. Davis if I was going to be available after lunch on this date for assisting him with a search warrant. I told him that I would be.
1:30 pm
I was told to meet in the VCSO classroom at 1:40 in reference to assisting in a search warrant.
1:40 pm
I arrived at the VCSO classroom and was given a briefing by Lt. Davis on a search warrant that was going to be served at the Administrative Services Office of Victoria County at the Victoria County Courthouse. Lt. Davis also had an arrest warrant for Joyce Dean, director of Administrative Services.
I was instructed to retrieve evidence bags and some gloves. I was told that I would be bagging items of evidence from Joyce Dean's office.
Once ready, officers walked over to the courthouse and Lt. Davis executed the search/arrest warrant. Capt Behrends, Dan Boots, Jack Justice assisted in the search of Dean's office.
The following items were found in Joyce Dean's office and seized per the search warrant:
1.Cullear phone in case. 2:50pm. Found on the top of Dean's desk.

NARRATIVE: 12/19/18
I was contacted in person by Lt. J. Davis around 1230-1245, he asked if I had any plans in the afternoon, I advised I did not. Lt. J. Davis advised he had an arrest warrant for Joyce Dean and a Search warrant for the administrative offices. He informed me that the warrant was for Theft by a public servant, a misdemeanor. He asked that we meet in the classroom around 1:30.
1340 hours
We met in the classroom; Lt. Davis asked that I secure the female clerks in the office in the conference room as the investigation unfolds.
We then walked over to the Administrative Services Office I made contact with Sarah Hamman W/F [REDACTED]. She sits at the front desk. Lt. Davis, Lt. Will Franklin made contact with Dean in her office area. Dean's granddaughter was in her office, she was taken to the conference room area with an ipad to play on. Lt. Davis and Lt. Franklin took custody of Dean, Sgt. K. Compean assisted.
Gina Howard had someone in her office, as she finished assisting her she walked out. I asked that Hamman no longer work on her computer. Mrs. Howard then came and sat in the front office area along with Hamman and Robin Knipling [REDACTED]. As Dean was walked out I believe she was discussing with Ms. Knipling who to contact to pick up her granddaughter. Knipling began making phone calls to Dean's family members to pick up the granddaughter. Knipling finally got in touch with Dean's daughter in law.
I checked on the granddaughter, I advised that her aunt would come get her.
Sgt. K. Compean, Capt. M. Behrends, Inv. Goodwine and I were in the front office area with Howard, Hamman, and Knipling. Knipling advised a short time later that the daughter in law was outside to pick up the granddaughter; I then walked her out to the vehicle that was on the Forrest St entrance.
The granddaughter asked why she was going with her aunt, was her grandma busy, I told her she was. The daughter in law was advised that Dean would contact her later this date.
We made small talk with the ladies in the office. Eventually Dan Boots, Jack Justice, and Lt. Franklin came back. They were in Dean's Office. Lt. Franklin asked if I would accompany him to Dean's vehicle to place her purse in the vehicle. I did so, we briefly look in her vehicle for any device that might be used to store data, and we secured a DVD that was located in the glove box. Lt. Franklin secured Dean's purse under the driver's side seat. The vehicle was secured and I walked the keys over to the Sheriff's Office as I was advised Dean was walking out. I located Dean in the front lobby at the Sheriff's Office. I handed Dean her keys to her vehicle and advised her that her purse is located under the rear of the driver's seat as it would not fit on the console or glove box. She asked who was doing this, didn't the rangers already do this investigation. I asked if she would like to step out front as there were other people in the lobby. We walked out front; she then asked if this was the Sheriff's Office, I told her that it was. She asked about her phone, I told her that we have secured it. She asked when she would get the phone back, I explained this is not my arrest/search warrant and I was not sure. I asked if she had a password on her phone and she indicated that she did, I asked if she would like to provide that and she said she would rather speak with her attorney. I explained I understood. I explained I do not know a time frame for her phone to be returned.

Dean then began walking to her car. I walked back to the Administrative Services office, she was a bit in front of me, and she then began trying to contact Lt. Franklin as he was at the side door of the courthouse asking about her granddaughter. I advised her that her daughter in law that drives the white expedition has taken her and I told her that she would call her later. She indicated she had no phone to call her with. She then went to her vehicle. I returned to the Administrative Offices building.
Knipling asked what she should tell people should they ask her what is going on; she explained she is acquaintances with all of Dean's family. I explained that she would be best to tell them she does not know what is going on and to contact Dean if they have any questions. She agreed that she would just tell them we told her she couldn't answer their questions. A short time later Lt. Davis came and he was speaking with Howard. We then left the office for it to return to normal business around 3pm.
